About Abu Dhabi

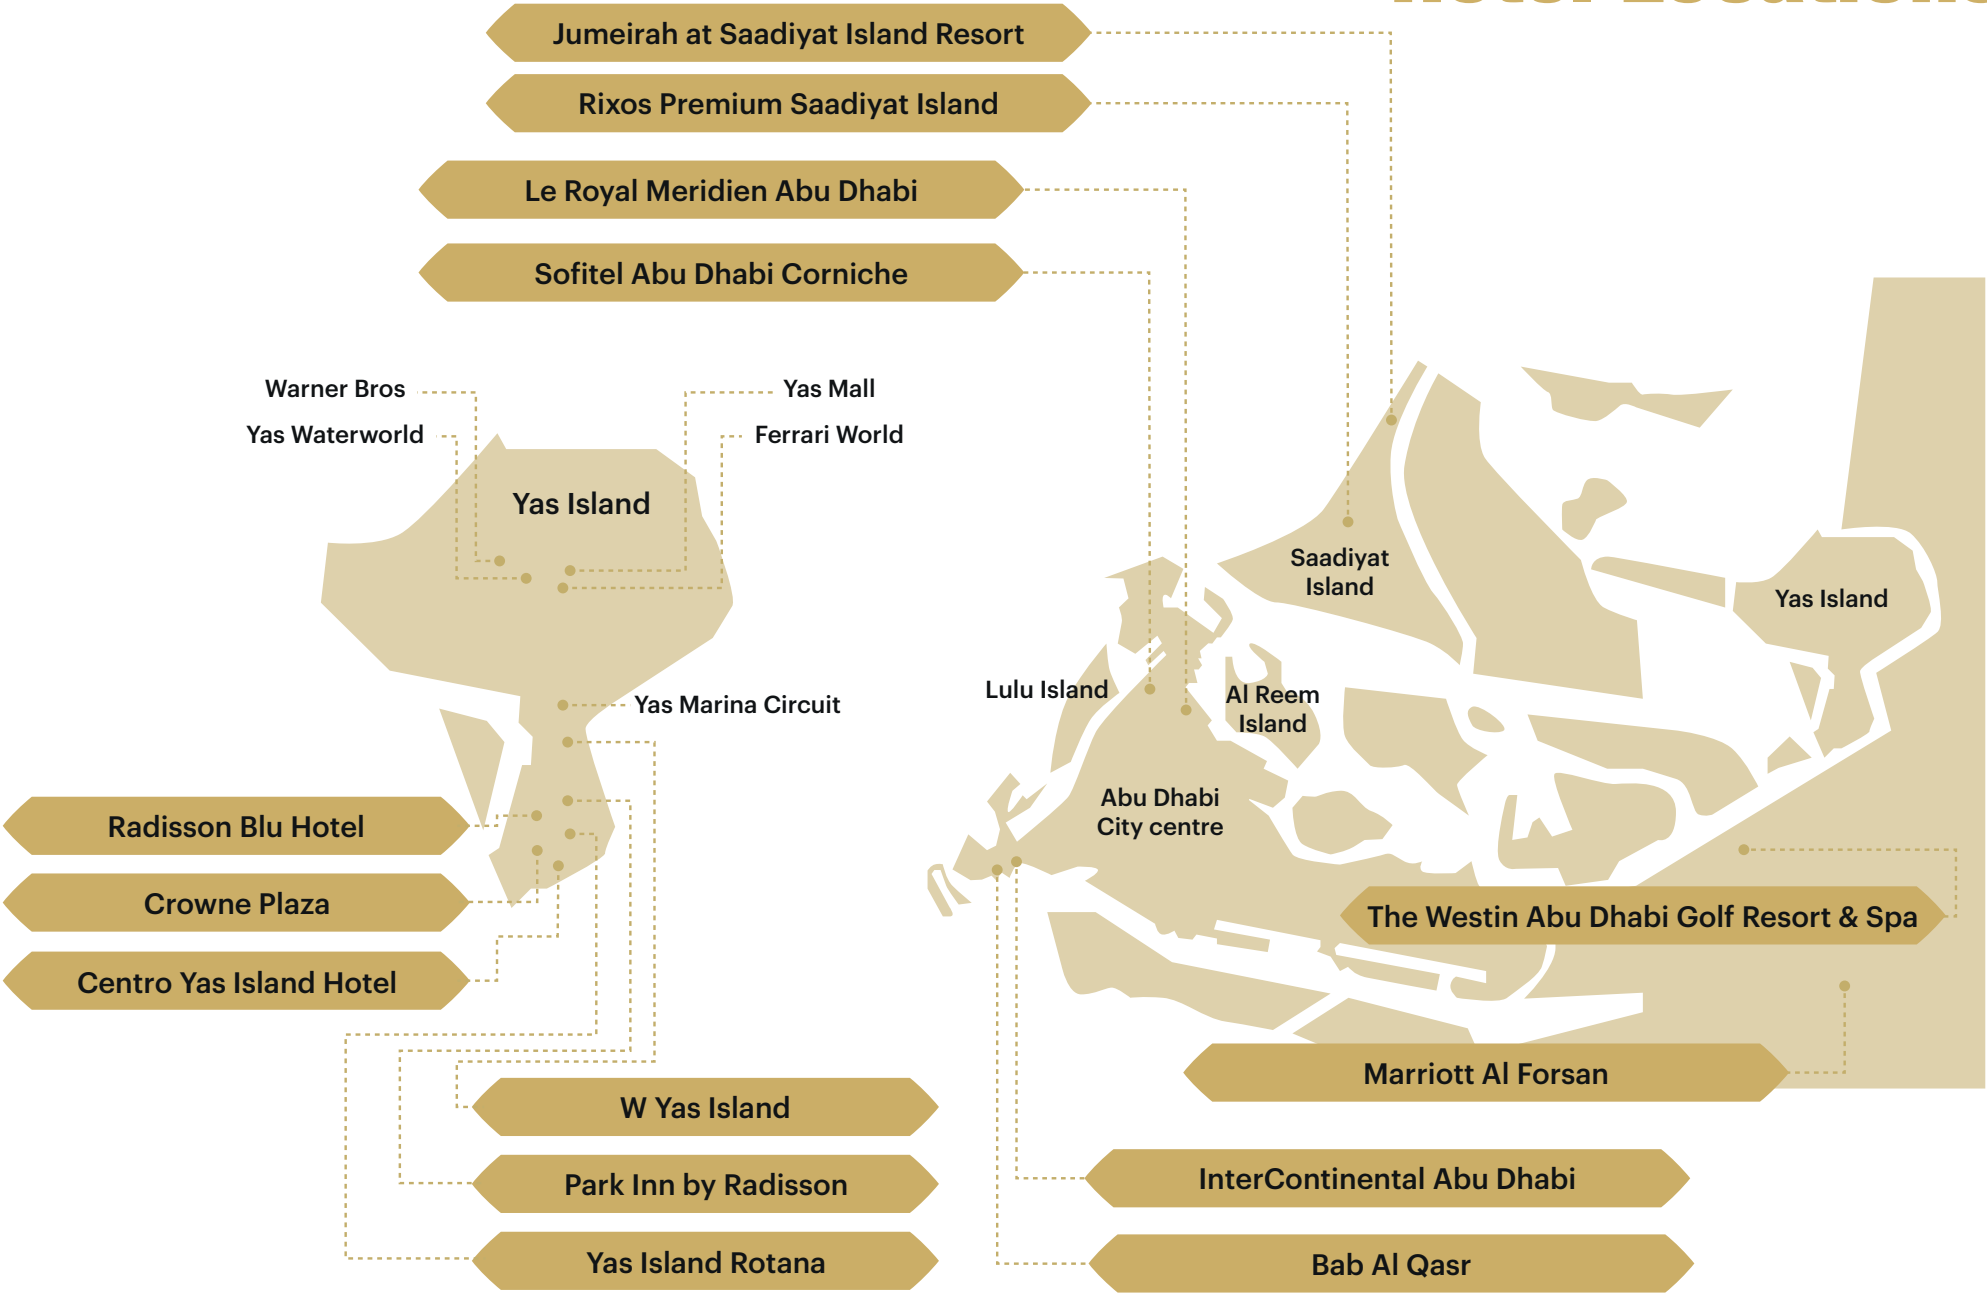

Abu Dhabi, the capital city of the United Arab Emirates (UAE), sits off the mainland emirate of Abu Dhabi on an island in the Arabian Gulf. The geographic footprint of Abu Dhabi as an emirate occupies about 87% of the total area of the UAE, excluding islands. The UAE is ranked number five among global oil producers, responsible for 5.2% of the world's total oil exports in 2018, to which Abu Dhabi was and continues to be the majority contributor. It has ploughed many billions of petrodollars back into the design and build of a capital city for the 21st century.

Working hard to diversify its economy away from hydrocarbon dependency, Abu Dhabi has focused on building a high quality tourism industry, like its neighbour Dubai. The city skyline bristles with modern high-rise corporate towers, deluxe hotels and mega-shopping centres such as Abu Dhabi and Marina malls. A lot of investment has gone toward sports and retail tourism. The annual Abu Dhabi Grand Prix takes place at Yas Marina Formula 1 Circuit on Yas Island and the nearby Ferrari World theme park attracts millions of visitors annually. Meanwhile the HSBC Championship hosted at Abu Dhabi Golf Club, showcases many of the top UK, European and South African players. Purpose built Al Forsan International Sports Resort offers tennis, horse riding, and professional go-karting.

There are many beautiful buildings and superb hotels. The Abu Dhabi Corniche is an outstanding promenade and the magnificent Qasr al-Hosn palace is nearby. Beneath incredible white-marble domes, the vast Sheikh Zayed Grand Mosque holds 41,000 worshippers. A small sample with so much more to see.
